

THE CHILDREN'S OWN CORNER

Adventures of Hans and His Chums

BY L. M. GLACKENS.

When Hans, he would a-fishing go, he sought a purring brook, Which (as you see) responded when he dropped his line and hook. "Now I half suspect," said Dackel, "though dear Hans declares it skill, That a fairish Isaak Walton anyone can be, who will.

"Though I must admit," he added, "it is harder than I thought, For other things than fishes with a fishing line are caught."

A sudden yelp, then startled Hans: "A-fish! A fish! Come see! He's swallowed bait and hook and all—and now he's after me!"

But Hans made haste and soon secured his disappearing tackle. Then easily, he saved the prize, and incidentally, Dackel. "Oh, do not think I'll punish you," said Hans, "be quite at ease; You'll never catch a thing from me as long as you catch these!"

WEE BOY IS STUDENT AT UNIVERSITY BUT LOVES GAY DRUM AND GOOD GUN

EDWARD R. HARDY, JR.

Edward R. Hardy, Jr., is only five years old, but he can speak English, French, Italian and German! He is a student—the youngest ever enrolled—in the New York university! When he grows up, he is to be the rector of the great Trinity church of New York! How's that for a program for a little five-year-old boy? But just now Edward is a whole lot more interested in boy fun than in anything else. He loves his brightly painted drum, and his gun is a regular companion of his. He is strong and healthy and happy! In the summer time, when he spends much of the day outdoors, his face and hands are tanned, and he doesn't care if he gets his clothes dirty and crumpled one bit. To make his lessons very practical, his father has allowed him to have a garden on the roof of his home in New York city. By the way, this clever little chap's father is Prof. Hardy, of the New York university. And his mother is Dr. Sarah Browne Belcher Hardy, who has been a practicing physician. It's no wonder Edward is smart, is it?

ANGLO-SAXON CLUB BANQUETS AT LONDON

Ambassador Page Dwells on the Importance of Anglo-Saxon Leadership.

LONDON, July 18.—The Anglo-Saxon club at its banquet Thursday night had as its guest of honor the American ambassador, Walter H. Page. Earl Grey, former governor general of Canada, presided, while among the guests were the lord mayor and sheriffs of London and Lieut. Gen. Sir Baden Powell. In reply to the toast of Earl Grey, Ambassador Page dwelt upon the great prerogative of the Anglo-Saxon race—leadership. He said that every president of the United States had been dominantly of English or Scotch blood, while the overwhelming majority of mayors, members of congress, and presidents of educational institutions in America bore names of English, Irish or Scotch descent.

FIVE MINERS ARE TAKEN FROM MINE

EVELETH, Minn., July 18.—The five men who were entombed at the Spruce mine here Wednesday, as a result of a cloudburst, were rescued Thursday night.

The imprisoned miners were located by tapping on a pipe which had been drilled forty feet into the mines. After the first signals were heard, the work of excavating was resumed with double energy and the men were soon located and brought to the surface. While they had suffered greatly, it is believed all will recover.

HUERTA SENDS DIAZ ON MISSION TO JAPAN

Movement Appears to Have Eliminated Diaz as Possible Presidential Candidate.

MEXICO CITY, July 18.—Gen. Felix Diaz Thursday was appointed by Pres. Huerta as special ambassador to Japan to express the thanks of Mexico to Japan for the latter's participation in Mexico's centennial in 1910.

By appointing Gen. Diaz to this mission, Pres. Huerta appears to have eliminated him, temporarily at least, from the politics of Mexico. He is expected to leave on Saturday and the president, when formally conferring the honor on him Thursday, said that he hoped that he would return to Mexico in time to be a candidate in the presidential election which is called for October 26. Gen. Diaz, however, would have to plan his trip carefully so that time would be left to him for the completion of his program in the presidential campaign. Approximately a month will be occupied on the trip to Japan and another month in the return, and it will be necessary not to discredit the mission by too much haste in leaving Tokyo.

Suffragettes attempted to rescue her, but were held in check by a large force of police, while Miss Barrett was bundled into a motor car and driven to Holloway jail.

After Lung Trouble

As many cases of Lung Trouble start with a cold or a cough, the best advice that can be given is to get rid of the cold or cough as quickly as possible. Otherwise more serious troubles are likely to follow. If the medicines you are now taking do not bring relief, try Eckman's Alternative, the remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, which has stood the test of time. Investigate this case:

237 Dean St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Dear Sirs: About a year and a half ago my health rapidly failed until at the end of six months my weight had fallen to 120 pounds. I was troubled with night sweats, a severe cough and was very weak. About this time I consulted a physician, who told me my lungs were affected. Not satisfied, I went to another doctor, who, after examining me, said that I was in the first stages of consumption. At this point I started to take Eckman's Alternative. The night sweats stopped almost immediately, my cough became looser and gradually disappeared. My weight is now 142 pounds and my physician has pronounced me perfectly sound—which, together with the fact that I have been accepted by two different insurance companies for insurance, makes me sure of my entire recovery by Eckman's Alternative."
